Career Profiles

The agriculture industry is full of opportunity for young people. Browse the different categories below and find the right fit for you.

Agribusiness Overview
Saskatchewan is known as a world leading producer of crops and livestock, supplying much of the world's food. To support producers, Saskatchewan also leads the world in Agribusiness.

Research Overview
Saskatchewan leads the world in pioneering technology that can help produce more food with less and the backbone of this forging spirit is our internationally recognized leadership in Agricultural Sciences.

Animal Sciences Overview
Caring for animals is a passion for many. If you are looking for a rewarding career in looking after animals, Saskatchewan's Livestock industry offers tremendous opportunities.

Agronomy Overview
With more than 40 per cent of all of Canada's arable land, Saskatchewan is an established world leader in crop production. Yes, hard work and patience had a lot to do with that historically, but in an advancing world, Agronomy is innovation that fuels our future.

Primary Production Overview
Primary agricultural production in Saskatchewan is a tremendous growth area in our economy. Today, as producers have unprecedented access to global markets; there this is a time of optimism for agriculture.

Agricultural Trades Overview
Trades are an essential part of Saskatchewan agriculture. The need for trades in our economy is growing with an incredible demand for skilled workers.

Processing Overview
Agricultural processing is the value-added production of food and industrial products from raw agricultural commodities, such as refining wheat into flour, repurposing canola for bio fuel or even using flax by-products as a heat source or insulation.